ARLINGTON PARK ELECTION SATURDAY

Polling Place For Entire Village Is At Municipal Building.

The citizens of Arlington Heights will go to the polls Saturday to vote "yes" or "no" upon a $23,000 bond issue, which if approved, will give the Arlington Heights Park District ownership of the site of the so-called recreation park. Many thousands of dollars have been spent by Uncle Sam in improving this park; which is now nearing completion.

The village officials have backed up their confidence in the approval by the voters of the park project with personal effort, the payment of some "earnest money" to obtain title to the land in question, and by careful management have received credit upon the books of Uncle Sam for services and supplies of several thousand dollars, yet which cost the tax payers of the village only $500 in actual money.

The polling place for the entire village is at the village hall. The ballot is small and can be marked with just one cross, taking only a moment of the time of the commuter, who is in a hurry to catch an early train.

While the village has, up to the present time, been the prime mover in the park project, the election Saturday is being held under the direction of the park board in accordance with a petition that was presented to that body. Individual members of the park board have gone on record that they will abide by the expression of the voters at the polls.

This board has met the legal requirements for such an election by proper procedure. It is now time for the people themselves, to express their opinion.

The bond issue is for $23,000, at not to exceed 5% interest. A bond of $1,000 will become due each year starting June 1, 1937 until 1953, at which $2,000 will be paid for spreading three years.

LIONS TO HOLD ANNUAL SPRING PARTY SAT. EVE

Dance at Arlington Ball- room to be Gala Affair

The annual May party and dance by Mt. Prospect Lions club will be held next Saturday evening, May 23, at the Arlington ballroom at Higgins and Arlington Heights. This is the third annual May party and dance to be staged by the Lions. Last year and the year before the affair was held at the Northwest Hills Country club, but that clubhouse was not available on the evening desired this year.

The entire village is urged to take part in this affair, for it is provided by the local service organization for the entertainment of residents and friends. All members of the club have been given tickets to sell for the party and dance, and may be purchased from them. The proceeds, as before, will be used for the purpose of furthering the work of Lionism in the village.

All kinds of dancing, new and old time, fast and slow, is being planned by the committee in charge and the music will be furnished by Joe Elrick and his band, well known and popular radio stars, who always furnish such enjoyable, danceable music wherever they play.

Dedication Sunday of Addition to the Lutheran Cemetery

Sunday at 3 p. m. the Lutheran section of the Euclid Lawn cemetery will be formally dedicated for a Christian burial ground with appropriate ceremonies.

The dedication service is sponsored by St. Peter Lutheran church of Arlington Heights under the leadership of the Rev. H. C. Fricke, English associate pastor. The old cemetery owned by the congregation is adjacent on the west to the new section, which will be set aside for the use of the membership of the Lutheran church. The congregation's cemetery is almost entirely occupied and thus the problem has existed of providing additional burial plots. This problem has been solved by the action of the Euclid Lawn cemetery association in apportioning and restricting a large section for Lutheran burials. A considerable number of members of St. Peter's have acquired family lots on this section.

The program of dedication will begin at 2:30 p. m. with a procession of cars from the church grounds to the cemetery, followed by the cutting of a ribbon symbolizing the opening of the gates. The service proper will be held under a large tent provided with sufficient chairs to accommodate all worshippers. Pastor Fricke will read the beautiful rites of dedication and will also give a brief address. St. Peter's choir will sing an appropriate anthem under the direction of Mr. Theodore Preuss. A significant feature will be the use of the following symbolism to show the Christian teaching of burial and death: the lifting of the soil to signify burial, the sowing of the wheat seed to illustrate the Christian's hope of resurrection, and the placing of flowers on the graves as a token of remembrance by ten girls dressed in white. Mr. Ralph Fricke will play a trumpet solo and also sound taps in final tribute to the dead.

An invitation is herewith addressed to the entire church membership and to all others who are interested to attend this unique and solemn service. An attractive folder containing the entire order of worship for the occasion will be supplied by the courtesy of the Euclid Lawn Cemetery association.

A. S. OLMS DIED SUNDAY

Prominent Mason and Former Palatine Mayor Was Nearly Ninety.

Mr. Albert S. Olms, 89 years old, died at 10:30 Sunday evening at his home in Palatine, where he has resided 48 years. Palatine Lodge No. 314, A. F. & A. M. conducted funeral home Thursday afternoon. The remains, as oft expressed by the deceased, will be cremated and interred in Randall cemetery beside his wife who passed away Jan. 22, 1933.

Deceased took an active part in Palatine business and official life many years. He was a member of Palatine lodge and Palatine Chapter No. 205, R. A. M. a great many years, serving as treasurer of the latter organization 26 years.

Mr. Olms served as mayor of Palatine ten years, and took an active part in the establishment of the State Bank of Palatine serving as its vice president a number of years.

The Observer Enters 90th Year

Mrs. Elinore Crisler Haynes, who is probably one of the oldest newspaper writers in active service, in this part of the state entered her 90th year Sunday and was showered with messages and flowers of friends and readers of the Herald.

Mrs. Haynes is author of the Observer Notes which appear each week in the Herald and also handles 90 per cent of the local news personals appearing in the Arlington Heights edition of the Paddock publications.

This woman who only lacks ten years of being a centenarian is on active duty each week, writing from four to six columns of newspaper matter. In commenting upon her interest in newspaper and other writing she said, "why should I not write; I was born in Indiana, the state where writers come from."

Mrs. Haynes' mind is as keen and active as when she was a young girl. Her early life was spent in Grundy county and she counted as a friend Chief Chabona who saved the white people of that community from an Indian raid and was given a quarter section of land in appreciation by the early settlers. That section was near the home of Mrs. Haynes' father, and she has many reminiscences of Indian life.

The "Observer" began teaching school when 18 years of age and has never grown too old to learn.

Forty-five years of her life have been spent in Arlington Heights and she is proud of the fact that she numbers among her friends three generations of "our" people.

This little woman resides at 207 N. Douglas street and many prominent in society and political life, as well as little children, always find her at home. Surrounded by family antiques which she prizes highly, has kept abreast of the times, modern in thought and thinks that this world is not such a bad world after all.

Autoist Did Not See Flares of Parked Truck; Does Escape Death

Chas. Rhoades, of Lake Geneva when he borrowed his sister's Buick to drive to Chicago, promised to be careful, but four hours later the sister was called to Palatine to find her car a complete wreck and her brother in the Community hospital with two broken ribs, cuts and bruises. Rhoades did not see the flares and lights of a parked truck of the American Car Loading corporation and driven by Joe Goliak, of Chicago, and hit with such force that he was fortunate in not sustaining fatal injuries. The accident occurred on Northwest highway adjoining Palatine.

Gypsy Picks Pocket of Palatine Farmer

Frank Bauer, residing near the intersection of Palatine and Rand Roads, refused to allow a gypsy woman to tell his fortune, Wednesday afternoon but she walked off with his money, which he carried in his pants pocket. It was a half hour later before he discovered his loss.

The gypsy arrived in a new V-8 driven by a man who had two women with him.

Arlington Rural Route Carrier Is Improving

SOFTBALL MEETING

A softball meeting will be held Friday, May 22, at Art Luerssen's, 202 W. Euclid. All sponsors or managers of teams are requested to come. Whether there will be a softball league in Arlington Heights this year or not will be the main question an important one.

FOUR GENERATIONS--AND ALL MEN

It is not very often that there are four generations with their members all men, but the Juhnke family has that honor. In the accompanying picture as shown Juhnke, 80 years old, Emil Juhnke, 55; who reside in Elk Grove; Albert Juhnke, 30 and Albert Jr., who is six years old and resides in Mt. Prospect. The photo was taken by Mr. Behnke, traveling photographer.

Modern Stop Lights Would Cost $6,900

Members of the Arlington Heights village board who have turned a rather attentive ear to the request of the state highway department that traffic control system on the Northwest highway be modernized were shocked Monday evening to learn that a system proposed by a contractor present that evening would cost in the neighborhood of $6,900. After the receipt of the verbal estimate, the board members changed the subject and turned to other business, but did ask that the proposed plan and estimate be presented in writing.

The state gas money could be used, but there has been hopes that such funds could be profitably used in the improvement of Douglas avenue, where it passes alongside of the new park.

New activity in the police department was evident in the report of the levying of $14 fines which netted the village $81; the issuance of 102 delinquent vehicle tag notices and the purchase of 70 tags by the people so notified. The total receipts for vehicle tags this year are $2,027.25.

Special police stars were ordered issued to Messrs. Whitmore, Heimsoth, Marten, Conger, Rehling, Frank Gieseke, Ira Melbourne, Bjurstrom, Hinz, Guenther, Broan and Stippick. Mr. Melbourne was appointed as a special police officer at a salary of $1 a year.

The building department has also been rather busy. Paul Taege turned in a final report on inspection of signs, which has netted the village $127. There are only two or three upon which the owners have not either removed them or paid the inspection fee.

Delinquent water bills were discussed at some length and upon the recommendation of Chairman Burnes, the department will either collect or turn off the water on all who are able to pay the charges. Included in the latter is $37 for thawing charges.

The various committees gave routine reports and reference was made to advisability of the acquisition of a caterpillar tractor for use when the next snow storm arrives. As that will be several months from now, the board took no action. The April gas tax due the village from the state is $521.63.

Palatine Pastor Attends Methodist General Conf. At Columbus, Ohio

Rev. Bloomquist in company with three other pastor friends, attended the general conference of the Methodist church held at Columbus, Ohio last week. Among the legislative and acts of the conference were:

Vote favoring the merger of Methodist Church South and the Methodist Protestant with the Methodist Episcopal. The merger will not become a fact until the first church named votes upon the question in 1938.

Election for bishops, Bromley Oxman, president of De Pauw University was one of those elected. Dr. Fred V. Stone, of Irving Park church was elected one of the publishing agents of the Methodist Cook Concern.

Five regional conferences have been established with a sixth covering the negro churches. The question of placing the colored folks into a conference of their own was hotly contested. The merger of the Methodist church South into the Methodist group made the latter question an important one.

MUST LEVY TAX TO SECURE STATE RELIEF

Supervisors Forced to Obey Law if Relief is to Continue After July 1.

tioned the state legislature to kill the township relief tax and keep the relief under present agencies for the remainder of the year.

The supervisors of Cook county have participated in a number of meetings of the Cook County Supervisors association the past ten days in order to definitely learn upon whom will fall the relief responsibility after July 1. After numerous conferences a meeting of the entire association was held at Berwyn last Friday when the supervisors were informed that there is no alternative for the townships except to obey the law and levy a thirty cent tax on all taxable property. If such an action is not taken there will be no direct relief checks from state and federal funds available for citizens of the townships after July 1.

In view of the responsibility of levying such a tax the supervisors voted unanimously that they would personally disburse the relief funds in their respective townships and would not delegate to some county or outside agency the spending of relief money in their respective localities.

Definite information as regards the present law and the obligation that it puts upon the individual supervisor and township was fully explained by Frank Ring, who represents this district in the state legislature. Mr. Ring had a ray of hope, however, in his belief, that while the townships must make a 30 cent levy prior to August 1, he does not believe that it will ever be collected. There is a new legislature to be elected in November and that legislature will probably right the injustice that the present law makes against the country towns of Cook county.

Mr. Ring stated further that when the law was under discussion, at Springfield, the reference bureau declared that it was constitutional. The discrepancies in the law and upon which may be declared unconstitutional are:

The same levy must be levied by every township, regardless of the need of said tax, which might be too great in one township and too little in another.

Taxpayers who reside in townships which lie partly in Chicago would be taxed double as the law provides that the city of Chicago and the townships should both levy said tax.

The supervisors were loudest in their denunciation of the law because in their belief, the state sales tax should provide adequate funds that should be used for that purpose.

The action of the supervisors has disturbed the plans of Chicago which hoped to keep all relief in the hands of present agencies. The supervisors say that they have no authority to turn over to an outside agency township money and if it is to be partly raised locally they are going to see that it is expended economically. The days of the case workers in the country towns are near an end unless the legislature enact some new law.

Mr. Clausung stepped upon a nail May 5, but after giving the injury first aid treatment, he thought nothing more of the incident as the wound apparently healed over. A week later he became quite ill and called a physician. A few hours later, lock jaw developed and he was taken to the Sherman hospital, Elgin in an ambulance Thursday morning. Death came two days later at the age of 36 years, 8 months, 3 days.

Local Boys Bring Home Glowing Reports of Lions Convention

Arlington Heights had four delegates at the state convention held at Vandalia, the first capital of Illinois, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. Carl Ewert, Harry Levine, Roscoe Reed and Harry Knack brought back glowing reports of the hospitality of that town, which is no larger than Arlington Heights yet maintains three hotels and can accommodate a convention of 500 or more delegates.

There were many good things about the convention, but the outstanding event was probably the parade of Monday afternoon.

Insurance Solicitors Can't Frighten This Father

Ferdinand Blohm, the popular clerk at the Schmidt Market, Arlington Heights, is the proud father of a second son, born Saturday, in spite of insurance solicitors. He says, "I am a father again, but if any insurance salesman learning that fact thru the columns of the Herald, call at my house to sell me some insurance on my new son, he is going to get thrown out upon his ear."

When his first son arrived, Mr. Blohm said that immediately upon the publication of the birth announcement, the insurance men began to arrive and he found it a harder job to turn down the salesmen than it was to provide the new son with worldly goods.

So, insurance men, take the hint and keep away from this father, who at the same time gives a big welcome to a new arrival and threatens dire punishment to any of you boys who come around.

Brides-To-Be Choose Memorial Day For Their Weddings

Reports have reached the Herald that three local weddings will take place Memorial Day. Some of them will be quiet affairs and not all of them are to be held here. The contracting parties include an employee of the local telephone exchange, a local store manager and the daughter of an Arlington Heights farmer.

More weddings are being held this year than any time since the depression. This fact has also contributed to a shortage of homes,

Arlington H. S. Nine Drops 8 to 6 Game To Waukegan Reserves

The strong Waukegan reserves picked up an unearned victory over the Arlington high school baseball team Friday. The Cardinals, who have been weak at the plate all season, hammered out twelve hits, including two doubles and a triple, but were unable to field. Five errors, two of them in the outfield, plus several plain boners gave away the game. Only three of Waukegan's runs were officially classed as earned runs and they came because of throws to the wrong base. Arlington scored in four consecutive innings on solid smashes, winding up the activity in the fifth on two doubles. Then Demos of Waukegan settled down, getting six strike-outs thereafter.

Heavy hitters for Arlington were Laseke with two out of four, Roy Wille with a single and a triple, Ralph Wille with two out of three, Hedke with two walks and a double. Kirchhoff hit the ball well, but collected only one safe hit. Sims of Waukegan played a fine game, hitting safely twice, fielding well, and running wild on the bases.

The Cardinals will play Waukegan Friday at Arlington. The visitors are not strong and may furnish the victims for that first conference win. Victories in the remaining games would give Arlington a .500 standing in the conference.

Earl Gieseke Stars In Athletics At Riverside College

Friends and alumni of Arlington H. S. have been pleased throughout the year to hear of the successes of Earl Gieseke who graduated in 1935. He is now a first year student at Riverside Junior College in California, where he has contributed to the fine record which that school is making in athletics. Last fall Gieseke reported for football two weeks later than the squad, but was a regular end on the varsity team throughout the season. Sports writers repeatedly declared him "the best man on the field" as Riverside rolled along to a conference championship. In a poll of over fifty writers he placed second by six votes in the choice for a place on the all-star team, losing to a second year man.

Gieseke was on the basketball squad and in the line-up early in the winter, but dropped that sport to concentrate on studies. Recent news reports from California show that he won his letter as a member of the track and field team which also took the championship in that sport. His fifth place in the discus, only three feet shorter than the winner's throw, was better than winning heaves in several Big Ten meets this spring. Incidentally, the outcome of the discus throw determined the championship of the conference, and the Riverside squad came through in a great finish to score four of the five places and win by fourteen points.

Junior colleges offer only two years of work and are preparatory to universities, where their credits are acceptable. Gieseke's scholastic standing, coupled with his athletic accomplishments, has brought him numerous offers of scholarships in some of the bigger schools. A star in high school, where his name is still one to conjure with, especially in football circles, he has risen by effort and drill far above his earlier attainments. His expressed determination, when he left for California was "to get an education." Not only is he doing a very satisfactory job of that, but he seems to be picking up athletic honors on the way.

ARLINGTON TO OBSERVE MEMORIAL DAY

Annual Auxiliary Dance Saturday, May 23rd

Merle Guild Auxiliary is again coming to the fore with plans for another social affair; this time in the form of a dance to be held at the Union Hotel in Wheeling, Saturday evening, May 23. Those who attended the card party and style show given recently by the Auxiliary know that they received their money's worth, to say the least, and that much and a great deal more is guaranteed to those who come to this event. A cake walk, something novel and different, will be an amusing feature of the evening. This cake walk, as stated before, is not what it's name implies, but give the participants a chance to win a cake every few minutes. That's all the information we are giving about it. Come out and take part and be one of the lucky winners. This is the final dance of the season to be held at the Union Hotel and everyone connected with it promises to make it the gala affair of the season.

Admission, Women 25c; men 35c.

Arlington Graduates Win Scholarships

Notices have just been received by Mr. Conger, principal of the Arlington Heights township high school, of the awarding to Cherie Burdick and William Foley, of scholarships to the Central Y. M. C. A. college, of Chicago.

The competitive examinations, which were given at the college May 8, were participated in by 102 students, representing 43 high schools. The awards were determined on the basis of a composite score made up from the students' weighted rating in school conference, scholastic aptitude, reading skill, emotional adaptability and vocational motivation. Of the 102 students participating, Cherie Burdick ranked 7th, and William Foley ranked 15th, giving to Arlington Heights recognition which was only accorded to three other schools besides the larger Chicago high schools.

Library Board Has No Funds to Pay for Rent Light or Heat

President Davis and other members of the Arlington Heights library board appeared before the Arlington Heights village board Monday night in response to an inquiry made by the former if the library board could not at least pay for light and heat used in its tenancy of the municipal building. Mr. Davis explained that their tax rate is limited by law, that the total taxes received is only about $800 a year and it is only with economy that the library can be operated at that cost. He stated further that the library is now open four afternoons and evenings a week and that if some of its funds are used for light and heat, part of the services to the public would necessarily have to be cut. The members of the board informally withdrew their request for the present.

Palatine Boy Loses Locked Bicycle At Deer Grove

Donald Iverson of Palatine, son of C. F. Iverson, manager of the Lake-Cook Supply Co., has nearly lost faith in humanity. He received a rather fine bike upon his recent birthday and upon going to Deer Grove last week, he locked the bike, so it could not be ridden away. Somebody carried it away however, much to the sorrow of Donald, who is offering in this week's paper, a $5 reward and no questions asked.

Property owners are cautioned against penalties accruing on delinquent special assessments and are urged to pay up before July 1, 1936, if possible, the final date for payment in the local office. New Tennis Courts To Be Finest That Can Be Constructed

The three tennis courts that are nearing completion at Arlington Heights new recreation park will be the finest that can be constructed. Lakolt makes what is considered as the best possible playing court and now being applied in four courts. The Rock Road Construction Co. is directing this work. When completed the court will be a dark green. It is an asphaltic content that makes it easy upon the feet, yet is resilient. It is expected that the courts will be finished by the first week in June.

The Suburban Dairy

With a Modern Plant in Des Plaines at 1307 Oakwood Ave., Distributors of Quality Dairy Products, Milk, Cream, Buttermilk, Butter and Cheese. A. W. Collignon, Manager. Phone Des Plaines 841.

This is a prominent sanitary institution of this section which has aided in the upholding of the community in more ways than one and renders a valued and essential service, the furnishing of their high-grade dairy products.

This is a strictly modern plant, which enlarged its business in a marked manner. Your inspection is invited.

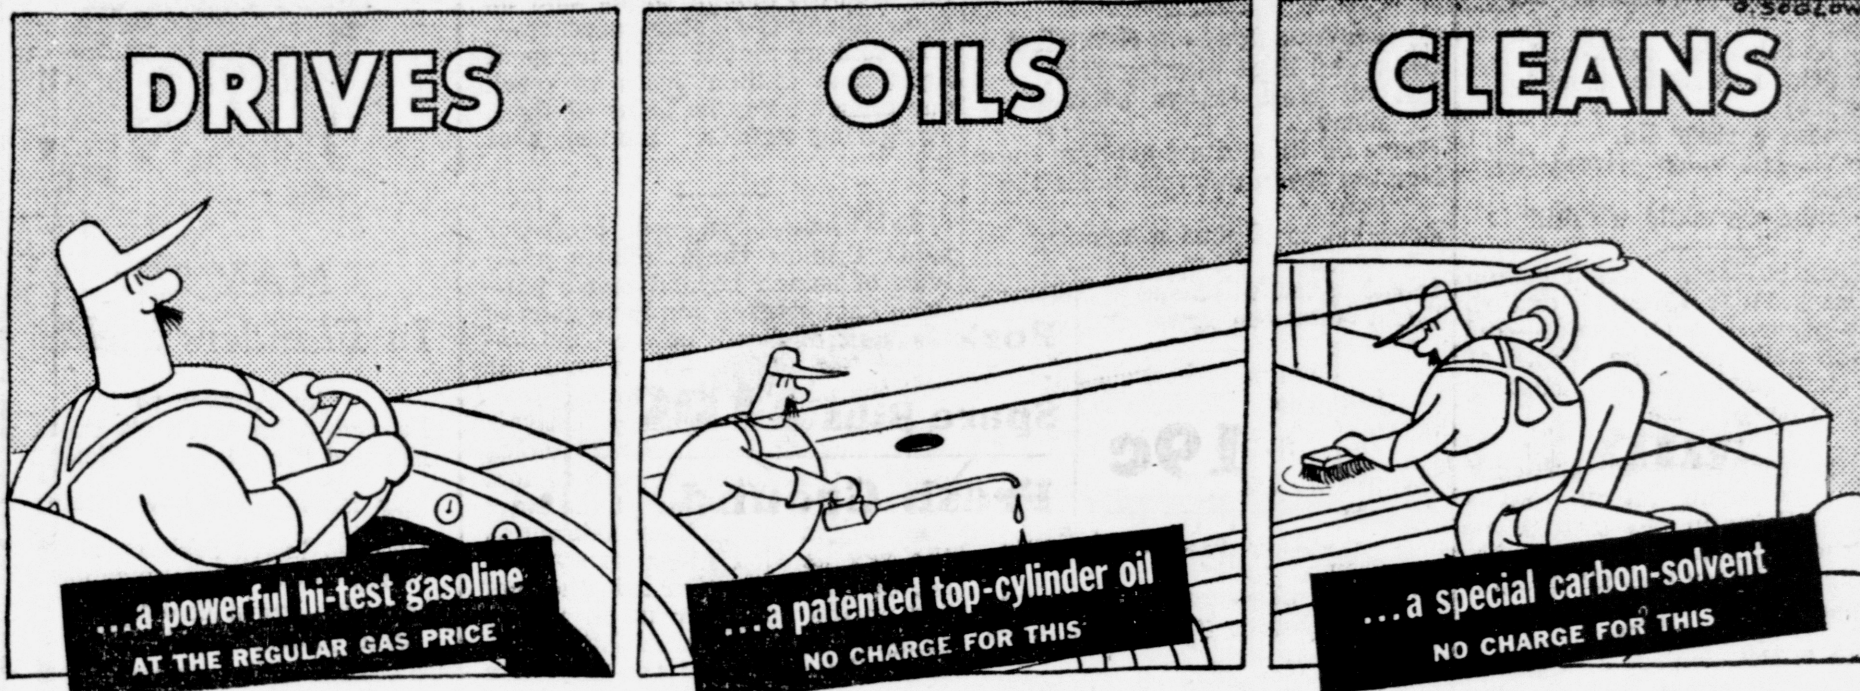

This firm's supply of milk and cream comes from the healthiest and best fed cows in this particularly advantageous section. The plant is positively as sanitary as long experience and the expenditure of money can make it, and is in the hands of a man who understands the business thoroughly. With these qualifications in their possession there is no reason why this company should not be able to produce as good, if not better dairy products, than any other concern of its character.

There is no reason why they should not occupy a prominent place in the better class of dairy markets and the above are some of the reasons why their brands are more popular and becoming more so each day with particular buyers, and are also the reasons for this concern prospering far beyond even the founder's expectations.

In the completion of this summary we are pleased to be able to compliment this dairy plant and the manager, Mr. A. W. Collignon, upon his business policies and the manner in which the business of the establishment is conducted and to state that this firm will greatly aid in the development of this entire section. We urge the patronage of their products for satisfaction in the most complete detail.

CHECK YOUR GAS AGAINST THIS GAS

It does 3 jobs at 1 time for 1 price

SURE, the gas you now use runs your motor. But does it oil upper-cylinders? Does it prevent carbon, rust, corrosion?

If it doesn't do all 3 of those jobs it can't match Triple-Action Tydol Gasoline. In fact, ordinary gasolines match Tydol in only one respect... they match it in price. For Triple-Action

Tydol costs no more than one-job, old-style gasolines.

Tydol contains a patented top-cylinder oil and carbon-solvent... put there to prevent sticking valves, reduce carbon and step-up all 'round motor performance. And this Triple-Action Tydol brings you increased power, added mileage, greater economy... at no extra cost.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Mortals and Immortals" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, May 17.

The Golden Text was, "What man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God" (1 Cor. 2:11).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "As for man, his days are as grass; as a flower of the field, he flourisheth: For the wind passeth over it and it is gone; and the place thereof shall know it no more. But the mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him, and his righteousness unto children's children: To such as keep his covenant, and to those that remember his commandments to do them" (Psalms 103:15-18).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science Textbook: "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Human birth, growth, maturity, and decay are as the grass springing from the soil with beautiful green blades, afterwards to wither and return to its native nothingness. This mortal seeming is temporal; it never merges into immortal being, but finally disappears, and immortal man, spiritual and eternal, is found to be the real man" (p. 190).

Carl Megel Directs Nature Study Camps At Burleigh Farms

Carl Megel, for many years coach at Palatine high school, spends his week-ends at Burleigh Farms, the Park Ridge gym club camps on Slocum Lake, near Wauconda, Illinois. Mr. Megel's lecture on nature subjects and his fine array of nature movies has won a place for him in the summer camp staff of the farm camp.

Last week-end forty boys and girls from Park Ridge and Glen Ellyn attended the camp and this Friday fifty boys from Northshore and suburban towns will pack blankets and fishing tackle for three days of real sport. Next week the camp will open to girls.

Alvin L. Lyons, owner of Burleigh Farms has turned the farm over to young boys and girls in order that they might have a farm experience with a camp program and staff. The Farm will open for a regular summer camp program with a large staff of trained directors on June 14. Any boys from Palatine, Arlington Heights or nearby towns may visit camp at any time or may receive full information by writing Mr. Carl Megel, Care of Alvin L. Observer's Notes

Out of earth's tumult fierce and wild,
The darkness and the din,
Hark to the voice, gentle and mild
Bids us keep calm within,
When factions rage in wild dismay
Disturb your peace of mind
Forge forward, knowing all the way
God rules, why fear mankind?
The wrath of man He turns to praise;
He silences earth's din.
Hark! 'tis His voice pierces the maze
"Keep calm my child within."

Nations of earth cherish hatred
And envy. War threatens disturb earth's peace. Yet God rules—and the Bible tells us, "The Wrath of man shall praise Him." History verifies this promise.

No use worrying about Ethiopia, Russia or Japan, let us make straight affairs in our own town:
clear the rubbish away from before our own door and all will yet be well.

Never in the memory of a generation has there been such striking of the wrath and envy of all nations. Yet we do believe and pray that the Prince of Peace shall win the world, and we shall yet see the wrath of man shall work out for praise to the Prince of Peace.

Long and severe have been the winter until we almost despaired of seeing the birds and blossoms come to bless our land again. Yet spite of starving many of our birds they are here with the same sweet old harmony of song.

Robins lead the van, spouting spring is here. The mock birds, orioles, and yesterday a gold finch or wild canary flashed by searching for a building site. The wrens in their nest in the linden tree make as much noise as a chorus of crackles or as a session of congress.

Just in passing, let us note an unusual proof of what is taking hold on the minds of youth in some of our colleges. It is denied, called a joke and all such weak unpatriotic explanations and excuses.

Brain trusters, threat amazing
In patriotic zeal
Our youth they are upraising
For the red flag wild appeal.
High on our nations court unfurled
It sent a loud defy,
Until a patriots fire was hurled Consuming broad and high Awake, America, Awake!
No treasons poison spread
No longer let thy treason shake
It's red flag o'er youth's head.

A trifling incident you may say Yet is it safe to our young folk to let such influences pass unheeded until proof of their danger becomes all too evident in real danger to our government? Is it safe?

Why bring that up now?
Spring is here in a miracle of bud and blossom. The long zero winter, the mountains of snow seem to bring out the full glory of nature's miracle. We said with discouraged tones, "There seems to be no life in our plants, our bulbs and our trees." When presto! here they are all at once, in all their glory of bud and blossom.

Today this is a land of flowers—violets, yellow bells, Mayflowers, rosetta flower, garland in its ro-seate color and prettiness. Ever the lilacs are almost here when some thought they would not bloom this year. Plum blossoms in snowy drifts cover the ground.

Apple blossoms are showing their pink coloring—call the list of over fifty wild flowers and none have failed to respond. Sunday was Mothers Day. I'm sure there will be no lack of flowers to crow

Here comes my apple blossoms!
No gorgeous flower of the Orient,
Lotus and lilies glowing fair;
Not all blest arrays perfume blend
Blown on the softest zephyrs there Nor the seven marvels under the sun
Revealed to Shebas wondering queen

In the beautiful palace of Solomon, Could equal the grace and glory seen
In the oceanous branches blooming free
Of this one resplendent apple tree.

No dreamy isle of the southern sea
With groves of spices and cinnamon
Nor regal blossoms odoriferous rare
In the hanging gardens of Babylon
Nor Paris paradise could compare To this festooned miracle flung for me
In billowy floral fragrance where.
My hanging garden ladens the air
From the terraced boughs of an apple tree.

Outside all is melody, music, and beauty: apple blossoms, lilies of the valley, blue violets. Who can choose which "Shall form a garland fair, to deck the crown of mother's hair." A beautiful day a pleasing sentiment, "say it with flowers," but don't forget to say it more truly with your life.

Mussolini and Hitler are rampant among the birds this morning. No matter how many pans of water we put out Hitler and Il Duce are sure to possess the last and fullest one.
So like the world of men are the selfish birds.

Here we go discussing, or more plainly speaking "cussing" world matters, when we haven't been clearing out our own door yards. Parley just now is who will be the Republican candidate for president.
Heard the Oberlin Alumni even to be number of thousands discussing or voting on their favorite candidates.

Into the thousands voting crept the swapping and changing just as s the real manner of electing a president. It was too real to be unusual.

"A rag and a bone and a hank of hair," now tell me how to give these notes a flare? Mothers' Day brought out much that was beautiful. Too much that was mere sham.

One pretty incident—a real woman who never wears flowers, sought with some effort to find a cluster of apple blossoms to wear Mother's Day. A sincere tribute.

Heard scores of much learned college, much degreed professors talking on larger horizons, or some such high falutin subjects. One of the greatest among these, said he knew about the star searchers—who told us that it takes a ray of light nine million years to reach our planet. Yes he knew of these staggering figures. But what of it?

This honest learned professor said "I know these infinite problems of search beyond man's power to know—after you have gone to the limit of man's power—and analyzed an atom—or found the millions of miles light must travel to get to our strawberry festivals—what of it? This honorable much learned truthful man; said to find the real joy of looking at the stars was to him to see them shining in the sky as God gives us eyes to see them. He further said the real joy of life comes to us in simple things. The prattle of little children; the delight in the first blue violets, or the unfolding of a fragrant rose. The orchard blooms, the first fruits gathered from the tree you planted. The dawn, the sunsets glow, yes, and the love of loyal friends, and the blessings of your very own. Simple, greatness in all these so-called common things, in these thank God and take courage.

Here's a pretty Mother's Day story just comes in: Sunday, May 3rd the Gleaners Circle of the M.
E. church brought to the altar at the morning service, a beautiful tribute of flowers, a memorial to Mrs. Mollie Herman, who was known and loved for her good works, which she put in her life in doing for others.

May day—the kindness of friends
the goodness of our All Father above, and the constant joy of life's simple things, prompted me to pen

In Flanders Fields

An Answer to
Lt. Col. John McCrae's Poem
Entitled "In Flanders Fields"

By Henry Polk Lowenstein

Sleep on, brave soldiers, sleep
Sleep where the poppies grow, Sleep on, brave soldiers, in your places, row on row.
The lark's still soaring in the sky,
Still bravely singing, soaring high,
Away above the cannon's roar, Scarce heard amid the guns as yore,
Before you slept in Flanders
Fields.

The faith with you we've kept and battled with the foe;
On crimson fields by you we've slept where poppies blow.
The torch you flung to us we caught;
With blis'ring hands we've bravely fought
To hold it high to guard you thru the Night,
And at the Dawn to guide you to the Light,
When you awake from Flanders
Fields.

this May day poem—trust it finds room this week, as one of life's "simple things."

O come with me a Maying,
We'll sing the whole day long;
We'll stop at every neighbor's gate,
And thrill the air with song.

Youth's Maytimes full of dreaming,
It's morning is so fair;
And all its wonder seeming,
Spills fragrance everywhere.

O come with me a Maying,
Morn deepens into day;
Through mature years now
straying,
To probe life's farther way.

O come with me a Maying,
The mid day sun brings heat;
The shade of trees dismaying,
Bring no fears of defeat.

O come with me a Maying,
Life brings its maytime flowers;
Let there be no dull delaying,
As pass the midlife hours.

O come with me a Maying,
Life's mid-day hours are past;
Defeat brings no footsteps staying,
If you hold your purpose fast.

O come with me a Maying,
As down the western slope;
Dark locks of gold now spraying,
Can not quench eternal hope.

O come with me a Maying,
May's sunsets deeper glow;
When at dawn youth went a
straying,
Learning greater truths to know.

O come with me a Maying,
No age can dim the shine;
As on we go displaying Fruits of life's true design.

O come with me a Maying,
There's a glow across life's sea;
Let there be no dull delaying,
For the best is yet to be.

Elinore Crisler Haynes.

SO. SIDE BREEZES

Mr. and Mrs. George Dieber have been enjoying a two weeks vacation motoring to various places. Mr. Albert Neumann accompanied them to Michigan, and Mr. Dieber's mother went with them on their trip to Indiana.

Roger Grandt is at home convalescing from his recent operation.

Thursday, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wisersky and children, Leona and Tommy, went to Oak Park to attend the birthday celebration of Mrs. Wisersky's mother, Mrs.
Branch, and the first communion of her brother's son. On mother's day, Leona made her first communion.
All the relatives were present, on both occasions.

Tuesday, Mrs. Harry Knack entertained her contract bridge club at a dessert luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Williams were among the relatives who attended the thirty-sixth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Behrens near Wheeling, Sunday.

The Holland tulip festival is an attraction to many. To Mrs. Jeanette Weber, attending the festival also means going home, for she has many relatives living there. This year she took her grandchildren,
Lloyd and Jean Baldwin with her.
Their little friends will catch some of the spirit, for the children came home wearing colorful Dutch costumes which they are proudly displaying.

When you saw the picture of Miss Adele Nuttini in the Sunday Tribune, did you remember that she is our Mrs. B. F. Brynaldson of Scarsdale? She sang at the state and local dinner of the Illinois Federation of Woman's clubs Monday evening at the Sherman hotel.

Last Tuesday, Mrs. Brynaldson sang before the Music Study group of the Wicker Park Woman's club.
Mrs. F. C. Utterback entertained her contract bridge club last Friday afternoon.

Several close friends and relatives spent Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. George Dieber in celebration of her birthday. Games, refreshments and conversation were the pastime for the genial group, who departed with wishes for many happy returns.

Mrs. Wm. Harrah, Scarsdale, was called to Hammond, Ind., Tuesday because of the serious illness of her sister.

Hand Salute Was Changed
In 1890 the British navy adopted the hand salute and, to be different from the army, decreed the use of the left instead of the right hand, a tactical error that was quickly discovered on British ships in colonial waters. The left-handed salute is a form of insult throughout Asia and Africa.—Collier's Weekly.

What is the news? Let all who read Remember news travels with speed; Sometimes the news that brings the worst, Will all too often reach you first; Death and destruction on the air, Outrains the cheerio everywhere; Our little town is torn within, By those who lose and those who win; Some have been wickedly abused, Others fool tricks have oft amused; Read well and ponder in between, Best ways to keep our village clean; Rule out false tales that wrong a brother, And help us build good for each other; Frost the past week ruined some of our garden prospects.

Mr. and Mrs. John Miller of Chicago Heights are at present rooming with her sister, Mrs. H. M. Blume.

Their friends are glad that Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fitzpatrick are able to spend more time at this end of his line of work during the hot season in St. Louis. Mrs. Fitzpatrick is at her old place of employment in the city.

Miss Margaret Telfer and her cousin, Miss Robinson, made a brief call at the Heights Sunday on their trip to the cemetery.

Mrs. Edward Harth is improving in health and has returned to her home after a brief stay in a hospital. Both herself and children have suffered from severe colds, flu and throat troubles.

When Mrs. Charles Klehm came home from her stay at Petosky, Michigan, she reported the tulips were just beginning to develop. Coming down the line further south at Holland, Michigan, the tulip carnival is now on and the tulips are there in all their splendor of bloom and color.

The Misses Frances and Amy Cresler called on their aunts in the Heights last Sunday. They had a disagreeable experience in finding their way from Glen Ellyn as the old familiar route was shut off by some drainage project and they had to come by way of Palatine.

Glad to hear that Mrs. Ida Sieburg is driving about in her new Chevrolet. I'm sure she will deserve the joy she will get out of it.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Reygel from Chicago and children were guests of their cousins, the C. E. McWharters, Sunday.

Our good friend, Mr. L. G. Helm arrived in the old home town Thursday last week. He is seemingly as well as usual and appears even younger than last year. No doubt climbing the ladder to pick his marvelous crop of sweet pea blossoms in our mid-winter time, helped to make him younger and more agile. His friends are glad to see him and to hear his report that Arlington Heights folks in California are bearing up well under California climate.

Miss Geraldine Firnbach spent last week end with one of her aunts in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Bolero from Oak Park were guests of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Kossack first of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Cruikshank from Portland, Oregon, gave friends here a pleasant surprise last Saturday by coming in for a call. Sorry to see Mr. Cruikshank much worn by a severe experience with asthma. Mrs. Cruikshank is just her same cheery, kindly self. They plan to spend the summer in this part of the country and we hope to see more of them.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Schwartz came from Chicago Sunday and were guests of his mother, Mrs. C. C. Schwartz, who helped him celebrate his birthday which was Saturday, the 16th of May. If a day behind the celebration was, you may be sure, all that could make a happy day in his mother's beautiful home.

Messrs. Dan and Ed. Reed were guests of their cousin, Mr. Nathan Richardson Monday, when they came out from Chicago.

Mr. Joseph Milligan fell from a ladder last Wednesday when at his work for C. P. company and broke one of his legs besides other hurts, was taken to a Des Plaines hospital for surgical treatment. His many friends sympathize with the family in this misfortune.

Glad to hear that Mrs. O. M. Johnson was able to sit up a while Sunday after four weeks illness which kept her in her bed.

Tuesday morning the Woman's club and guests started out for their days outing at "Plenty Wood Farm." The morning was glorious and bids fair for delightful day—so may it be.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Wayman, Mrs. J. J. Rau, Mrs. James Wayman, Mr. Harry Fairchild from the city and others of the Fairchild family went to Woodstock to attend the funeral of their uncle, Mr. M. J. Wright, Monday this week.

Dr. and Mrs. Warner and Mr. Barlow and their two sons from Chicago, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Cleveland this last Sunday.

Among those from Arlington Heights, who attended the funeral of Mr. William Dawson at Barrington, Sunday, May 16, were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Melzer, Mr. and Mrs. U. A. Reese, Mrs. Josephine Sieburg, Miss Laura McElhose. Mrs. Dawson was an old neighbor and citizen here and had many friends.

Mrs. Helen Schultenburg has been forced to leave her old home where with her children and husband, she has lived all her life, and has gone to live in the Landmeier apartment on West Campbell street.

Be sure to remember Poppy Day May 25.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Breese and daughter, Miss Minnie, from the city, were guests of Mrs. Charles Fitzpatrick last Sunday. Mrs. Breese is not at all well. Mr. Breese and their daughter both have employment in the city.

Miss Betty Sadecky was given a delightful shower last Sunday in Sadecky hall. A large company shared in the festivities and the making shower of gifts.

Mrs. Josephine Sieburg received a letter recently from Dr. Mary Becker of Portland, Oregon, telling of the illness of her brother, Will Becker, who has been working too hard clearing away, cutting trees and working them into building material for houses he has been constructing. Their friends in the old home town are sorry to hear of Will's illness and all their troubles.

Last week Wednesday Mrs. Arthur Schmidt accompanied by Miss Decker, Mrs. Charles Lips, Mrs. Charles McElhose and Miss Sarah Harris, drove to Cary on the Fox River to the new summer home of the Schmidts. This new summer home has all the attractions possible nearness to nature, the river and the wood. The trip was a treat to Mrs. Schmidt and her guests and most enjoyable in the May time beauty of nature on all sides.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Palmer have as guest in their home the past week, their daughter from New York, moving about this prairie-land, and past wood and stream. Particularly has their guest enjoyed her parent's rare and beautiful tulips now in all the splendor of full bloom.

Mrs. Albert Haemker and her little daughter came to her home from Palatine hospital last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Harris drove out to Elletts, Monday night to the home of an intimate friend who met a most tragic death by burning to death when alone in her home last week.

The members of the Aid Society of St. Peter's church attended the luncheon and play given by the aid society of the Lutheran church at Roselle, Thursday this week.

The local Garden club met in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Wednesday, May 13. The high light of information was given by Farm Adviser O. G. Barrett on spraying for insects. A display of cut flowers brought in for a contest as to the most beautiful tulips, was a tiful cluster of parrot tulips with wonderful colors and markings. The prize Mrs. Fitzpatrick so justly won, was a beautiful Fuchsia. The meeting was well attended and most interesting. Mr. Barrett's address gave many welcome suggestions.

James Arthur Weise whose birthday fell on May 17, started his celebration in the kindergarten Friday, the 15th, when his teacher, Mrs. Daisy Daniel's birthday came Sunday, the 17th, he went to the home of his Grandpa, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Weise and his grandfather's birthday was also May 17. Finally bright little James Arthur Weise sent a pretty birthday card to a friend, who was celebrating her ninth birthday anniversary the 17th, our mutual birthdays he so quaintly called it, and of all her many messages none pleased her more than this one from the grandson of one of her dear old friends.

Mrs. Clara Flentie celebrated her birthday also May 17 in her home in Des Plaines, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Flentie, Mrs. May Heffron and her brother, Henry Flentie from Chicago, were among the guests, also her son who lives in Des Plaines, and many other friends as Mrs. Reiter kept open house that day for her friends. Mrs. P. J. Mors also one of the "mutuals" sharing May 17th celebrated with groups of friends keeping open her beautiful home for three days and entertaining them in her usual courteous, hospitable manner.

Furthermore "Observer" known to all of you, also celebrated her ninetieth anniversary May 17 and if any others claim this date and desire to enter the mutuals they should present satisfactory credentials to the oldest of the distinguished coterie.

Words fail to express the joy and beauty brought to this same "Observer" on her ninetieth anniversary, from north, south, east and west, came messages of greeting by wire, air mail and post. Shake-speare told how Dunston Wood came to that castle all Klemm's flower gardens entered our door from other towns and flower-and-gardens they came. Beyond description in gorgeous bloom and color, a ton of red flowers to harmonize and blend with the delightful and comforting expressions of love and loyalty that came on that day of days. The recipient of all these wonderful expressions of loyal friends is overwhelmed with gratitude. May I prove worthy of all of it—my prayer is "God make me worthy of my friends." Dear friends I thank you, and as long as our Father wills that I should stay in this life, may He give me strength to be of service to His humanity and grateful service to my friends.

The Gleaners Circle of the M. E. church will hold their regular monthly meeting Wednesday, May 27, 8 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Ed. McElhose, on North State Road.

Schaeffer and Hertel Star In 19 to 3 Slaughter.

With Schaeffer pitching one of the sweetest games of his career, and Hertel leading a murderous batting attack with a perfect day at bat, the Red Wings turned what started out to be a ball game into a one sided track meet.

After the first inning it was very apparent that any Elgin batter getting so much as a base on balls would be pretty lucky. Schaeffer had everything on the ball, but Frank Merriwell's famous double-shot. Ordinarily a speed ball pitcher, George, appeared to be taking it easy. Playing the corners, throwing slow curves, using a splendid change of pace, he had such hitters as Rumpke, Dahn and Garbisch literally eating out of his hands.

It took some pretty ragged support in the fifth inning, coupled with a lucky hit for Elgin batter, the whitewash. Before the side could be retired three runs were in, tying the score. This was where the boys decided to turn the game into a track meet. But that's getting a little previous, I'll start at the beginning.

Keeney started the game off by going out Brodman to Hertel; Dahn flew out to Tossman in right field; Leiseberg singled and died on first when Rumpke flew to Wilbert in left.

For the Red Wings, Joe Brodman hit the first pitched ball over short for a single. When the Elgin second sacker bobbled Kehe's hot grounder, both runners were safe. Frank Brodman layed down a nice sacrifice, both runners advancing. Ray Willert, batting in cleanup position, singled down the left field line, scoring Brodman and Kehe, and took second on the throw to the plate. Bolte fled to the third baseman for the second out and Hertel singled, scoring Willert. This was the first of four successive hits by Hertel. Schaeffer went out second to first to end the inning. Score: Red Wings 3, Elgin 0.

For the next three innings Elgin never got the ball out of the infield, the batters going down in one-two-three order. The Red Wings didn't do much better in this period of time, their only hit being a terrific smash by Hertel that would have been good for three bases had he not hesitated going into third and gotten himself trapped and run down.

In the fifth things really began to happen. Garbisch opened the inning with a long high fly to right which was impossible to judge due to sudden gust of wind that played tricks with the ball, helping Garbisch get a lucky triple. With a man on third and nobody out it began to look as though Schaeffer would be scored on for the first time this season. When Altenburg lifted a high fly to center, Joe Brodman, of all players, in his anxiety to cut off the run at the plate, tried to throw the ball before he had caught it, and dropped it. Vanderford struck out and Pilcher got a legitimate hit, scoring Altenburg. Pilcher pilfered second base and went to third as Bohne was going out. Kopplin to Hertel. When Kehe muffed Keeney's grounder Pilcher tallied, tying the score. Kehe threw out Dahn, ending the uprising.

Right here is where necessity became the father of some base hits. The boys needed some runs and they went right out and got 'em. Joe Brodman socked one a mile-a-minute right into Pilcher's hands at short for the first out. Kehe singled, Frank Brodman hit to Altenburg at third and when Altenburg's hurried throw pulled the first baseman off the bag both runners were safe. Dahn, not his second hit, scoring Kehe and sending Brodman to third. Willert stole second and when Rumpke's peg went into center field Brodman scored. Willert going to third. Bolte walked and promptly stole second. Hertel got his third hit of the game, scoring Willert and Bolte. Schaeffer was safe when Pilcher booted his grounder to short.

On an attempted triple steal, Hertel was out at the plate. Kopplin singled to right center, scoring Schaeffer and Deiderich. Joe Brodman fled to Keeney ending the inning. Score: Red Wings 9, Elgin 3.

That was the end of the excitement until the last of the seventh when Bolte opened with a single. Hertel collected his fourth hit. Schaeffer was hit by a pitched ball. Keeney muffed Kopplin's high fly, and Kehe smashed out a triple to score four runs.

In the eighth inning Elgin sort of had an idea they needed a new pitcher so they stuck in a left hander, Mr. Vanderford. Either Mr. Vanderford couldn't find the plate or he was afraid to. He walked the first four men to face him and when he finally did get a pitch over Deiderich slapped it into center field for a single. The next pitch was also over. Kopplin lifted it over the right fielder's head for three bases. After giving one more free trip to first, Vanderford was replaced on the mound by Pilcher, the shortstop, who retired three men in a row. Schaeffer pitched to four men in the ninth and the track meet was over.

In spite of the one sided score the fans saw an exciting ball game. They saw a supposedly high class Elgin team throw the ball all over the field. They saw an attempted triple steal, some spectacular fielding by Frankie Brodman, four stolen bases, in fact, they saw everything but a home run and a field goal.

Nice game boys, about the only advice I can offer you is don't increase your hat sizes or Sycamore will knock your ears off next Sunday.

Defends WPA Program In Illinois; Says It Must Be Continued

Declaring that "no recovery of highly mechanized business will correct the unemployment situation in Illinois until a long period of readjustment has occurred," Major A. R. Lord, Assistant Administrator of the State Works Progress Administration, Monday night told members of the Western Society of Engineers that it is highly probable that some form of Federal Works Program must be continued regardless of what political party is in power.

Speaking before the Society at the Chicago Engineers Club, Major Lord maintained that WPA is the inevitable outgrowth of long time industrial and economic conditions in America.

"America has a large and growing working population requiring more and more jobs to keep it employed," he said. "Counter to this requirement America has been inventing and introducing astounding productive labor-saving machines. Such machines are labor-displacing, actually, rather than labor-saving."

"You cannot save labor. Unless it is needed somewhere else, it is lost."

Using evidence gathered on his recent 6,000 mile inspection trip of WPA operations in downstate Illinois, Major Lord pointed out that thousands of willing workers have been rendered jobless in the mining counties by one-man machines that today mine more coal than five miners could formerly.

As evidence that WPA has increased community prosperity, Major Lord pointed to $66,600,000 in WPA payrolls in Illinois which will have been released by June 30 next, all of which will have been spent for necessities, and another $18,400,000 will have been spent for materials, trucking and other services, he said.

Golfers Learn They Must Leave Ball Out of Bounds Or Stand Arrest

MAY 16, 9:45 A. M.

If you hook or slice, do not attempt to retrieve your golf ball from the property of Mr. Werhane on Saunders road north of Dundee road, which property borders one of the local daily fee courses in the above vicinity, because Mr. Werhane will have you arrested and prosecute you for trespassing. Apparently Mr. Rudolph Kraft of 1625 N. Keystone avenue, was not aware of that fact, because his case on the charge of trespassing will soon be heard by Judge Sengstock. It isn't the fact that to hook or slice out of bounds is a penalty, but Mr. Werhane is tired of having golfers trample his plowed fields and has decided to act within his rights. However, I am a golf fan and let this serve as a warning, but also remember, that the Sheriff's Highway Police in arresting for a violation of this sort, are only doing their duty.

Seventy-five Years Old But Young Enough to Enjoy Turkish Baths

MAY 17, 11:15 A. M.

The saying that "Life Begins at Forty," may be argued against very emphatically with suppositions, but actualities are really what count. Deputies Klausch and Burnette came back with an actuality when they were sent to investigate the disappearance of Mr. Layton I. Turner age 75, of Waukegan and Oakton street. Their report showed that Mr. Layton had left his home on the morning of the 16th, but returned when they arrived and stated that he had gone to Chicago for a few drinks and had spent the night in a Turkish bath house.

Northwestern Football Star Meets Accident

MAY 17, 12:15 A. M.

Although the football season is far off, the moral of the Northwestern University contingent must be quite low, following the accident in which Don Geyer, the well respected full back almost lost his ear. He was a passenger, riding in the rumble seat of a car being driven by Park Wray, a husky line man when it was struck by another car being driven by Mr. Strong of Chicago. A lady companion of Mr. Wray was very much worried over Geyer's condition and repeatedly had Sgt. "Diamond Jim" Allegretti call the hospital, although Mr. Wray insisted that no matter what happened, Geyer could take it.

Sheriff Police Will Play Rogers Park Tues.

Believe it or not, the indoor team of the Sheriff's Highway Police took it on the chin again, this time at the hands of Capt. Andrew Barry's men of the Chicago Hudson Avenue District Station. Before you make up your minds as to the ineffectiveness of our team, come out and see us play the Rogers Park Police, behind our station on May 26 at 5:00 p. m.

Wulbecker-Kindler Nuptials Were Saturday

Miss Ida Elizabeth Wulbecker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Wulbecker of North Chestnut avenue, was married to Mr. John Kindler, son of Mrs. Ed. Vetter, Saturday, May 16, 1936, at early mass in St. James R. C. church, the Rev. Father Stier conducting the sacred ceremonies. The bride's maid's aunt, Miss Dorie Wulbecker, sister of the bride's father; the bridegroom's best man was Mr. Matthew Schutte of Des Plaines. The bride was radiant in a white silk gown with long draped veil. She carried white roses. Her maid was attired in a blue gown of pretty fabric and her bouquet was pink roses. After the ceremony the bridal party went to home of the bride's parents, where a wedding breakfast was served to about fifty guests, a satisfying menu to break their fast. This meal was followed by a sumptuous dinner and later a supper generously served, sure no one went hungry.

There was dancing, music and "all went merry as a marriage bell." As one whispered there is a "birthday child" in our midst as Mrs. Rudolph Kizzi entered the circle, knowing it was her birthday. All the guests joined in heartily singing "Happy Birthday To You."

The happy company stayed until the morning hours when all adjourned in time to attend church, so ending a perfect day.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kindler had their new home prepared by loving hand and true hearts and they went immediately to their new home where the best wishes of many friends are extended to them for all the worthwhile things of life.

Pretty Church Wedding Unites Wilfred Gerken and Lucille Hartkopf

An impressive ceremony was performed at St. John's Ev. Lutheran church in Chicago by the Rev. Paul Luecker on Saturday afternoon, May 16, at 5 p. m., when Mr. Wilfred Gerken, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gerken, of North State Road, and Miss Lucille Hartkopf, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hartkopf of Norwood Park, were united in marriage.

The bride wore white satin and a long tulle veil and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley and maiden hair fern. She was attended by her sister, Eleanor, as maid of honor, who wore maize mousseline de soie and carried yellow roses, yellow daisies and baby's breath.

The other attendants were Miss Dorothy Schilling of Norwood Park, who was dressed in delicate blue, and Miss Dorothy Gerken, sister of the bridegroom, who wore bluish pink. The two bridesmaids carried pink roses, blue delphinium and baby's breath and all wore small braided hats to match their dresses.

Little Miss Nancy Gaertner of Chicago was the flower girl and wore an ankle length dress of pale green taffeta and carried a basket of pink roses.

The bridegroom was attended by Mr. Walter Kirchhoff of Mt. Prospect as best man, and ushering were Mr. George Gerken of Chicago, cousin of the bridegroom and the bride's brother, Mr. Walter Hartkopf.

After the processional Miss Ruth Krueger of Chicago sang a solo, "Because," and after the ceremony the choir from Our Saviour's Ev. Lutheran Church, Norwood Park, where the bride attended, sang "The Voice that Breathed O'er Eden."

A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents.

Biggest Track Meet in History of Conference Will Be Held Saturday

The biggest track meet in the history of the Northwest Conference will be staged at Franklin Park this coming Saturday. Whether it will be the best ever, will be determined at that time. The preliminaries will be run off in the morning at 10:30 and the finals at 2:00 p. m.

Leyden's new athletic field is by far the best in the conference and ranks well up with the finest in the state. An excellent quarter mile track with sufficient width to easily accommodate six foot lanes in the sprints and hurdles assures the best field of dash men the conference has ever been able to show in the finals; also the runways for the jumps, etc., are of the best assuring good footing no matter what the weather.

In the prelims Saturday morning there will be trials in all field events and the 100, 220 and both hurdles. In the sprints and hurdles there will be 3 heats in each event with the first two men in each of the three heats qualifying for the finals. There won't have to be any running against time. These relays will not count for points. There is a trophy for first place in the meet, one for second place, and silver batons will be awarded each winning school in a relay. An individual medal consisting of a track shoe will go to the boy winning the most points in the meet. Also the four boys constituting each winning relay team will be presented with gold medals.

Leyden has a well fenced field with plenty of bleacher space for spectators. This will assure there being few people on the infield and all spectators can see the events easily.

The admission is 25c to adults with all students and teachers being permitted to buy tickets at 15c.

In the field events all contestants will be given four trials and the six best will compete in the afternoon with three trials each. In the pole vault and high jump an effort will be made to cut the field down to approximately six men for the finals.

This year for the first time five places in the meet will count for points with the points distributed 5, 4, 3, 2, 1. There will be medals for the first four places only. The fifth man will have to be content with his point, only, this year.

In addition to the usual 13 events there will be three relay events. There will be a straight Frosh relay of 440 yds., each man to run 110 yds. Then there will be the usual 880 yd. relay (each man to run a 220), with anyone eligible.

Also there will be again a medley relay made up of the consecutive parts—a 440, 220, 220, 880 yds. No man is eligible for this who will have run the same distance in any of the final events.

IN MEMORIAM

Hellberg, Richard—In loving memory of the 4th birthday on May 26, of our darling little Son and Brother, who passed away on July 19, 1935.

A precious one from us has gone,
A voice we loved is stilled;
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.

A Happy home we once enjoyed How sweet the memory still;
But death hath left a loneliness
This world can never fill.
Dear little Son, you are not forgotten,

Though on earth you are no more;
Still in memory you are with us
As you always were before.
